

2014 MGFA Community Service Award Recipient – Al Beste

The Minnesota Grain and Feed Association (MGFA) selected Al Beste as the recipient of the 2014 MGFA Community Service Award.

The MGFA Community Service Award is given to a member who has demonstrated a strong commitment to community leadership and public service. Mr. Beste was an obvious unanimous choice based on his service to the Albany Mutual Telephone Association, serving as President for 25 years & earning the NTCA Telephone Excellence in Leadership Award; his 21 years as a volunteer firefighter; 16 years on the city council; 54 year involvement with the Lions Club; and 60 year active membership in the local Chamber. He also served as a member on both the Northwest Agri Dealers Association board of directors as well as the Minnesota Grain and Feed Association board of directors; was a member of the National Grain and Feed Association & American Feed Industry Association and his active service to his church and other notable activities. Al Beste is the owner of Famo Feeds based in Freeport, MN.
